San Francisco, California (November 6, 2019) Evelyn Arnott, a Realtor® for 11 years from Fairbanks, Alaska has graduated from the 2019 National Association of Realtors® Leadership Academy.

Evelyn Arnott was selected from the membership ranks through a rigorous application and interview process by the NAR Leadership Academy Advisory Group.

“NAR’s Leadership Academy provides one on one experiences and tools that equip volunteer leaders for future opportunities at the state, local, and national level,” said NAR Senior Vice President, Marc Gould. “Volunteer leaders are crucial to our industry and by better understanding the needs and strategies of our trade association, Leadership Academy graduates can affect change at all levels of the organization.”

Let’s congratulate Evelyn Arnott and the NAR Leadership Academy graduating class of 2019 as they are part of an energized movement of real estate professionals fighting to keep the dream of homeownership alive for our country.
